

Temper My Heart

William I. Helterbrand

E - Do

Solemn prayer

1. When I see the wick - ed pros - per. When I
2. When I yearn to know the sec - rets of the
3. When the seas of life are rag - ing with a hear the right - eous groan. When I learn of pre - cious things You've yet con - cealed, And I think be - yond the tor - rent, un - con - trolled. Though in con - stant prayer en - chil - dren called so ear - ly to their home. When my glor - ies of the word that You've re - vealed. Keep me ga - ging, my un - cer - tain - ties take hold. "Row to an - ger swells with - in me, and my tears of sor - row hum - ble in my learn - ing, For I on - ly know in joy, or sail to sor - row?" It's a course I can - not start, In Your wis - dom and Your mer - cy tem - per my heart part. When to spe - cu - la - tion turn - ing tem - per my heart.

3

6

9

12

chart. When I'm an - xious for to - mor - row